

Excellence

Excellence is the state or quality of excelling, meaning being good to a high degree. Other forms of this value might be brilliance, distinction and quality (all of these embedded into excellence). This is a particular value as it is a goal to pursue. Every activity of the company (including all other values) shall contribute to the achievement of excellency.